SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS - CARN LATITUDE a sub-fund of SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS

class NOK-R-A1 (acc) (LU1380297512)

Management Company: FundRock Management Company S.A.

Objectives and investment policy

The sub-fund aims to generate a maximum capital appreciation by combining long and short positions on company shares (equities) that are listed on regulated markets.

In order to achieve its objective, the sub-fund invests predominantly but not exclusively in European Companies (particularly in the Nordic region, i.e. Sweden, Finland, Norway, Denmark and Iceland).

The Investment Manager seeks long exposure on the companies that are believed to be undervalued or mispriced and conversely short positions for companies that are believed to be overvalued.

The sub-fund may invest in derivatives to achieve its investment objectives or to mitigate risks. Derivative instruments includes over-the-counter transactions such as warrants, total return swaps and contracts-for-difference (CFD's) and/or exchange traded transactions such as options and futures.

The Investment Manager uses fundamental analysis for selecting the investment opportunities.

The sub-fund may also invest a substantial portion of its assets in interest bearing instruments.

From time to time, up to 20% of the sub-fund's net assets may be invested in liquid assets, such as cash deposits or money market instruments.

The sub-fund may create short positions through derivatives. The sub-fund's long positions will at all times be sufficiently liquid to cover any obligations arising from its short positions.

The sub-fund's leverage, i.e. borrowing and derivatives exposure may not exceed a total of 200% of its assets.

The sub-fund is actively managed without reference to a benchmark.

The currency of the share class is NOK.

Under normal circumstances, you may sell your shares every first and third Tuesday in any month.

These shares are capitalisation shares. Income and capital gains are reinvested.

Recommendation

This sub-fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 3 years.

Risk and reward profile

What does this synthetic risk and reward indicator mean?

- The shares of class NOK-R-A1 (acc) are classified in category 7 because the value of the share may be subject to high variations and consequently the risk of loss and the opportunity of gain may be high.
- The risk category has been determined using the maximum risk limit allowed for this share class. The risk category may not be a reliable indicator of the share class's future risk profile. The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.
- The seven-category scale is complex, for example 2 is not twice as risky as 1. The gap between 1 and 2 might not be the same as the gap between 5 and 6. A category 1 sub-fund is not a risk-free investment - the risk of losing your money is small, but the chance of making gains is also limited.

Which materially relevant risks are not adequately captured by the synthetic indicator?

- Credit risk: the sub-fund invests directly or indirectly in interest bearing instruments, for example bonds. If an issuer of such an instrument cannot pay interest or the nominal amount at maturity, the investment can lose some or all of its value.

- Liquidity risk: low liquidity might result in that it would be difficult or impossible to buy or sell an investment instrument in a timely manner and that the price could be lower or higher than expected.
- The sub-fund may use derivatives. Due to their structure, the risk associated with these investment instruments may have a larger impact on the value of the sub-fund, than buying the underlying stock or investment instrument directly.
- Counterparty risk: the risk that a counterpart does not fulfill its obligations to the sub-fund (e.g. not paying an agreed amount or not delivering securities as agreed).
- Currency risk: the sub-fund may hold some of its investments in currencies other than the sub-fund's reference currency. Thus the value of the sub-fund may rise and fall due to currency movements.
- Operational risk: the risk of loss resulting from e.g. system breakdowns, human errors or from external events.
